DORGAN ANNOUNCES SECOND ROUND FOR IRS TAX TOUR 2000;
PERSONALIZED, HOMETOWN TAX ASSISTANCE IN NORTH DAKOTA

(WASHINGTON, D.C.) — U.S. Senator Byron Dorgan (D-ND) announced Thursday that the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) Tax Tour 2000 will hit the road once again in North Dakota this month, stopping in six communities to provide rural residents with personal tax help from the IRS. IRS tax specialists and the IRS mobile assistance units are scheduled to stop in Devils Lake, Dickinson, Jamestown, Valley City, Wahpeton and Williston to answer questions, hand out forms and publications, and provide help with personal and business tax problems.

The IRS first dispatched their new “mobile assistance units” to rural communities across the state during the month of February. The program was so successful - providing assistance to over 800 North Dakotans in 24 rural communities - that the IRS decided there was clearly a need to bring the tax assistance back for a second tour before the tax filing deadline, which is 12:00 Midnight on Monday, April 17th.

Dorgan proposed the new service last year to help restore much needed taxpayer assistance in rural areas where IRS walk-in offices are not currently available. “I’m pleased the IRS extended the mobile assistance service,” he said. “This will be especially important to North Dakotans who need last minute assistance preparing their tax forms.”

Following is the second round Tax Tour 2000 schedule for North Dakota during the month of April.
